ABOUT

LOGMIEER

The “Dongre Vasti Gruha” is the landmark in Nashik City, located centrally and has been in existence as a “Sanstha” since 1920. It was re-established as “Krantiveer Vasantao Narayanrao Naik Shikshan Prasarak Sanstha” in 1969, in memory of Vasantao Narayanrao Naik, who participated in the freedom struggle and was a popular leader and visionary during the pre- and post-independence era. The administration of the entire Sanstha is looked after by a democratically elected setup, i.e., office bearers, trustees, and directors, who have a great vision for the development of educational infrastructure. Currently, sixty educational institutes are run by the KVNNSP Sanstha, including many primary and secondary schools, junior and senior colleges, industrial training institutes, and a polytechnic, spread over a wide geographical area of Nashik district, out of which forty-two institutes are aided by the government of Maharashtra. Considering the needs of all socioeconomic classes of the region and the sustainable development of various communities, the “Loknete Gopinathji Munde Institute of Engineering Education & Research (LoGMIEER)” was established. The institute is affiliated with the University of Pune, with all necessary permissions from AICTE New Delhi, DTE Mumbai, and the Government of Maharashtra, and commenced its academic session in 2011.
